

Ms. Gina's Weekly News

January 25, 2021

Dear Families,

This week we will continue to study community helpers. Our focus this week will be on the special services provided by postal workers, sanitation workers and construction workers. We will participate in many exciting and fun learning opportunities! Our writing center will be transformed into a mini post office, so the children can become postal workers. We will also be adding some new building supplies to our block center for our engineers in training

Have a great week!
Ms. Gina, Sr. John Henry, & Ms. Diana
