Dear Families,

This week we will talk about feelings. We will learn that there are many different feelings that people can have. People can be happy, sad, mad, scared, tired, shy, or surprised. Our students will be introduced to an interactive feeling chart. They will be encouraged to show how they are feeling each morning by placing their picture in a specific category. We will learn to recite a poem and sing a song about feelings. Students will be given an opportunity to draw, dictate and write about their feelings.

Have a fantastic week!
Ms. Denise, Ms. Claudia & Ms. Becca
