Ms Johana’s Weekly News
March 14, 2022

Dear Families,

This week we begin a new Unit! Living and Non-Living Things. We will introduce the new topic and vocabulary words by looking at books and reviewing what it looks like to be alive. Students will be able to name the differences things that are living and things that are not living. We will explore some of the living things, such as animals and plants.

Sincerely,

Ms. Johana, Sister John Henry, & Ms. Coco
